

Muskegon County 14th Judicial Circuit Court

Muskegon, Michigan

State Structure

Michigan's delinquency services are organized at the both the state and local level. Community supervision is administered either by the Michigan Department of Human Services or local juvenile courts. The Bureau of Juvenile Justice within the Michigan Department of Human Services administers commitments to state facilities as well as aftercare services for youth leaving state facilities. Secure detention in Michigan is administered three ways: most facilities are administered locally at the county level by either regional boards or circuit courts, and a limited number are administered by the Michigan Department of Human Services.

Upper, Lower, and Extended Age of Jurisdiction

State	Delinquency			Status
	Lower age	Upper age	Extended age	Lower age	Upper age
Michigan	None specified	16	20	None specified	17

Status Offenses

In Michigan, desertion of the home without sufficient cause, disobedience to the commands of parents or guardians, and truancy are status offense behaviors. Status offense cases are classified as accused status offenders. The Family Division of the Circuit Court has jurisdiction over status offenders and delinquents.

These statistics are estimates that account for missing data and may differ from other published sources. The county-level files which are the source of this information are not official FBI releases and are being provided for research purposes.

The Coverage Indicator refers to the relative size of the sample from which these estimates are based. A coverage indicator of 90% means that data covering 10% of the jurisdiction's population are estimated and that data from 90% of the jurisdiction's population are based on actual reports. Only jurisdictions with a coverage indicator at or above 90% are displayed in this application.
